

This law is the best on the books. My phone has stopped ringing through dinner time and my daughter's bed time with those annoying, unsolicited calls from telemarketers. I am vehemently opposed to any change to this law and am appreciative of this law for protecting my privacy and my family time.